August 9, 2016

CASE NO.: 2D16-
L.T. No. : 2016-CF-

v. Grady C. Judd, Sheriff

Appellant / Petitioner(s),

Appellee / Respondent(s).

BY ORDER OF THE COURT:

As the petitioner has established, and the trial court has found, that the funds used to procure an appearance bond from _____ are not linked to or derived from criminal activity, and the evidence presented established that the bail bond company is not requiring the petitioner to provide additional collateral, the petition for writ of habeas corpus is granted to the extent that the petitioner is entitled to release from custody upon the posting of the bond that has been imposed and compliance with such other conditions, if any, apart from the Nebbia hold, as have been previously imposed. Should the circumstances presented to the trial court have changed or the terms of the petitioner's bond have changed, or as may be otherwise permitted by law, the State may apply for modification of bail by showing good cause and with at least three hours' notice to the petitioner's attorney. Fla. R. Crim. P. 3.131(d)(2).
